About Construction Management Awards

The 5th Construction Management Awards (CMA) is set to open for nominations. Organized by the Hong Kong Institute of Construction Managers (HKICM), it recognizes and showcases the effort and achievements of Hong Kong construction management teams and practitioners. It helps maintain and strengthens the highest standards of professionalism and competitiveness in the construction industry. There are more than 1,000 construction projects in Hong Kong per year, and we aim to attract all talents from the city to promote professionalism in construction management. The awards are open to individuals and teams with the profession.
